

THE YOUNG WIDOW.

She is modest, she is beautiful,
Free and easy, but not bold—
Like an apple, ripe and mellow,
And the young man has not old,
That is, he is not old,
Now advancing, and now shy;
There is mischief in her smile,
There is danger in her eye.

She has studied human nature,
She is schooled in all her arts,
She has taken her diploma
As the mistress of all hearts.
She can tell the very moment
When to sigh and when to smile,
Oh! a maid is sometimes charming,
But a widow all the while!

Are you sad? How very serious
Will her handsome face become,
Are you angry? She is wreathed
In smiles, and she is so content,
Lonely, friendless, fearful, dumb,
Are you thoughtful? How her laughter,
Silver sounding, will ring out,
She can lure and catch and play you,
As the angler does the trout.

All old bachelors of forty,
Who have grown so bold and wise,
You should be twenty,
With your love-letters in your eyes,
You may find it hard to take steps to
Tangle with Cupid since the fall;
But I know a little thing or two,
Who could win and fool you all.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says: "The Freedmen's Bureau is making an effort to reduce the enormous expense at which the Government is placed in supporting the large number of freedmen in Tennessee. In order to induce the freed people to take steps to provide for themselves, all of the hospitals for freedmen and refugees in the Nashville district have been discontinued, excepting four, which are not for freedmen only, and those are now in process of being discontinued."

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 19.—Gov. Wells has issued a proclamation, calling for proposals to reconstruct the levees at the expense of the State. Petitions have been received by Gov. Wells from citizens of North Louisiana, asking that steps be taken to prevent the threatened negro insurrection in that section of the State. The negroes are now in a state of excitement, and are now in process of being disarmed.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 19.—The Legislature to-day endorsed the course of Hon. Wm. L. Sharkey, by electing him United States Senator, to fill the unexpired term of Jeff. Davis, commencing March 4th, 1865. The measure was carried by a vote of 26 for and 12 against. Two ballots were had, no election, to fill the unexpired term of A. G. Brown. The majority of the Legislature are in favor of negro testimony. Shannon of the Clifton, elected public printer.

The Albany Journal says the rumor that Secretary Seward intended to resign, is false in its length and breadth; that Mr. Seward had not furnished the British Government such information as represented; that no correspondence has passed in which a claim has been made for such intelligence, and that the whole story is as false as it is foolish.

President Johnson will, doubtless, before Congress meets, proclaim all the recently insurgent States restored to their former places in the Union. The clerk of the House, therefore, must not members elect from these States on his roll, if there be no contesting members and he finds the former "regularly elected in accordance with the laws of these States," unless he is determined to refuse to recognize the insurgent States as States in the Union.—New York World.

The Lancaster (Pa.) Intelligencer has a pungent editorial "The Republican Party Gone Up!" Has not our contemporary mistaken the direction in which that party has gone? We confess that we should never look after such sinners in that direction.—Old Guard.

The Richmond Times says the Swedish emigration experiment has worked to the satisfaction of all parties. The farmers are much pleased with the Swedes, whom they find to be industrious, efficient, honest, and orderly. They do double the work of the negroes, and require no looking after.

WENDELL PHILLIPS denounces President Johnson as a three-fourths rebel, stigmatizes Gen. Banks as a rascal, and says that the South is victorious.—Wendell curses like a full-blown, or at least, one in more classical language. He is an educated curser.—Louisville Journal.

The Government will give out no contracts for carrying the mails in the South until after the first of January. Routes will be established along the line of railroads, but those towns and sections of any of these will have to depend on private conveyances for their mail transportation.

GOLD FOR CONFEDERATE BONDS.—The Mobile Register, and others of the 14th inst., say: "We learn that a gentleman in this city yesterday buying six and eight per cent. Confederate bonds for a house in New York. The price paid is said to have been two dollars in gold for bonds of one thousand dollars each."

HOG CHOLERA.—As every one is vitally interested in the rising of stock, we give the following simple remedy as an infallible cure for that terrible scourge of the country, called Hog Cholera: "Add one gill of Turpentine to each half bushel of corn, mix well and give it to the hogs, and a certain cure will be the result."

We see it stated, that a soap peddler was caught at sea during a severe storm, when he saved his life by taking a cake of his own soap and washing himself ashore. The soap or the story must have been made from very strong lies.

JINKS says it is the privilege of hoops to surround the lordship of all things, among which are girls and whisky.

The application of ex-Gov. Allen, of La., for pardon, is said to have been received at the Attorney General's office in Washington on the 18th instant.

Two President continues to receive memorials in behalf of Jeff. Davis, among them one signed by 5,000 ladies of Georgia.

The steamer Jewess, reported lost on her way from New Orleans to Mobile, turns up all right.

Mrs. Humphrey Marshall is in New Orleans practicing law.

Mrs. Paxton says that she has bought a horse and carriage that she always goes off on a deceiver.

Mrs. Grey is opposed to gambling. She calls for a Red Sea, like that of old, to destroy Faro and all his hoys.

"There's a brandy smell!" as the song said when a drunken man fell through a pane of glass.
